

Charitable Ventures, the State-designated Administrative Community-Based Organization focused on 2020 Census outreach in Orange County, and the OC Census Fund, a collaborative philanthropic effort supported by Charitable Ventures, have awarded an additional 20 nonprofits with grants to support the participation of Hard-to-Count communities in the upcoming decennial Census. This recent distribution of funds marks the third round of Census funding administered by Charitable Ventures.

Grantees are:

- California Healthy Nail Salon Collaborative
- CAP OC (Community Action Partnership of Orange County)
- CLUE (Clergy and Laity United for Economic Justice)
- Coalition of Orange County Community Clinics
- CommunityConnect Labs
- Community Health Initiative of Orange County (CHIOC)
- COR Community Development Corp.
- Discovery Cube Orange County
- Help Me Grow - CHOC Foundation
- Institute for Healthcare Advancement
- Jamboree Housing Corporation
- Latino Health Access
- LGBT Center
- OC Labor Federation
- Orange County Herald Center
- Pretend City
- Southland Integrated Services
- The Kennedy Commission
- VietRISE
- WAVE (Women for Values and Ethics)

Grantees named as of February 14, 2020.